DEFIANCERECORDS XLIV (NR.44)

RELEASE-DATE: FEBRUARY 24th, 2003

FILE UNDER: SINGER/SONGWRITER, INDIE

23 year old Kevin Devine surely is one of the most startling singer-/songwriter talents hailing from a punkrock/emo background besides the likes of Chris Cabbarra (Dashboard Confessional), Jonah Mantranga (Onlinedrawing) or Kristofer Aström. Originally having fronted the New York emorock outfit The Miracle of 86, he casually released "Circle Gets the Square," one of the most beautiful acoustic albums of the year 2002. This album goes far beyond the hype that surrounded "Quiet is the New Loud" and "Anti-folk." A six string, simple but heartfelt melodies and his shivering and stirring voice - this is all Devine needs to capture the hearts of his audience.

After playing shows throughout the US last year with artists like Dave Pirner (Soul Asylum), Curt Kirkwood (Meat Puppets), The Moldy Peaches, Bill Janovitz (Buffalo Tom), Grant Hart (Hüsker Dü), Kevin Marsh (Guided By Voices, Shudder To Think) and Sergio & Garrett (Quicksand, Texas is the Reason), Kevin Devine is now crossing the Atlantic for the first time. Together with his guitar and Vagrant powerpop artists Koufax, Devine is coming to Europe to present the songs of "Circle Gets the Square". In support of the tour, Defiance Records is releasing the EP "Travelling the EU" featuring three new romantic songs from Devine, including his interpretation of the Louisiana state song, "You Are My Sunshine". Kevin Devine is cruising the continent for all you punkrock romantics out there.
